Thurston County naturopathic physician suspended on charges of being unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety

OLYMPIA – The Board of Naturopathy suspended the license of Thurston County naturopathic physician Lori Wieser (NT.60083126) pending further legal action.

Charges state that Wieser is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety due to a mental or physical condition.

Wieser cannot practice in Washington until the charges are resolved. She has 20 days to respond to the charges and request a hearing.

The legal documents on this case can be seen online by clicking the link on Provider Credential Search on the Department of Health website; copies can be requested by calling 360-236-4700. Anyone who believes a health care provider acted unprofessionally is encouraged to call this number and report their complaint.

The Department of Health protects and promotes public health, safety, and welfare in Washington by regulating the competency and quality of health care providers. The agency establishes, monitors, and enforces qualifications for licensing, consistent standards of practice, continuing competency mechanisms, and discipline. Rules, policies, and procedures promote the delivery of quality health care to people in Washington.
